between you and me / able / remark / when we come together / showing how to heal / relating / recalibrating / how amazing is / that how miraculous utterly / beautifully / sophisticated / how intricate / with each new person / new coordinates / we are meant to be in relation / with many people with many maps / shaping us / healing id / is / relational practice / loves revelation / each a new face / salvation / mine / new way / being / dynamic mirrors / the possibility of / outwards expansion / for a while incandescent / tender / open / malleable the symbiotic flight / of birds / these are days / these are days I wish to revisit between you and me / I want negation / so in that empty space we can experiment with otherwise-living / I want / to make my contribution / to let others know I have seen them and / that they too can see me / I want / vulnerability is desperate longing / I want ON THE LOSS OF SISTERHOOD to be inside / outside the prison / I want to offer a language for being outside / I want to be misunderstood / by many / I want the loss of sisterhood to radicalise / not lead me to despair / perhaps despair will radicalise / speaking of despair I want / to write about my mother / about sisterhood as a barrier to empathy / sisterhood and narcissism / what if instead of another reflection we / sought out solidarity / politics that reaches out across difference / into great abysses of living otherwise-realities / commonality without collapse / how lazy how lack how / trite / had to sever myself from the category / had to write this and that so as to be understood / had to figure out how to see myself / had to figure out I want / to be ok with being unseen / so as to always be seen again / like this / had to lust for it / had to crave / had to envy / sisterhood that always / already projects / protects into some thing / the distance required / for differentiation between you and me / make me wanna sing / sing ornate speech / his own boring self-aggrandisement / my salvation / my hearing / I'm trying to stay out of the house / I closed my eyes for a normal amount of time / suddenly / early descent / supremely unseasonal / listening thing between you and me / I thought / I am trans / fuck / unexpected and traceable / a pipeline / one of the boys / girls / the need to be want / that means self possession / this flesh active / conspiratorial vectors / improvisational prose score / kept coming and going / this score as vessel between you and me / observant prose / noticing / I can explore / desired / devoured / decadent / that is what it's for / whole symphonies of correspondence / cadence speaking score / an instrumental frequency / to burrow between you and me / touring joint audio releases / we both agree S should be there too / learning how to be a person / again / and trying to figure out a way to get back to each other / I am allowed / am allowed / self portrait / no looking / can't believe how life turns out / if I sleep with people / as in same / I ask nobody / good morning sunshine / good morning moonlight / my outrage / my escape / cypher through looking finding eating / trying / occupying myself / hell bat / hell bent / to produce / to become between you and me / I won't know until it is there / happening / MY LOVE / wants to live / this is sentimental / is living / must be warm exuding only love / messages stop down around me / calling attention / that's the golden rule / I remember it correctly / in the space of no space I find my self / and love that self then / I find new selves / I let the old ones go / the who of today / the who of tonight / without story / rehearsal / living out old searching / resolute / enclosed / see me / says the story all the while hiding / under skin / watching breath / watching not seeing / crying out louder / yonder in the woods / watching you breathe / life let me go / let me out / pervading / stripping / let me live / in this this is what is / did people / unmoved / start clapping
